Easter Offerings

The Finance Committee would like to remind you that all Easter monetary gifts for Father David should be placed in an envelope clearly marked with "Father David". This includes cash or cheques made payable to "David Osborne". Pre-addressed envelopes will be available at the back of both Bramley and Cranleigh churches. Any loose cash or unmarked envelopes placed in the collection plate will be assumed to be a gift to the Parish funds.

Divine Mercy Sunday will be celebrated at Chilworth Abbey from 1.45-4.30 pm on April 28th, 2019. In collaboration with Guildford Deanery, the relic of St Faustina will be venerated, the Image of the Divine Mercy blessed, followed by a procession through the grounds and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Rev Deacon J. Michael Phillips will preach on the Message of Divine Mercy from Saint Faustina. Please bring a friend who may be searching for God's mercy.

Mother's Day Flowers. Thank-you to all loyal Parishioners etc, for buying our Posies and Bouquets, for Mother's Day. We hope you all had a lovely Mothering Sunday. Our contribution to the Talents Scheme is £413.50. Marvellous!! Thank-you all so much from The Flower Arrangers.

Financial Giving : The Financial Giving in March was very generous and a thank-you to all who gave - whatever the amount. Our year to date March Offertory is £28433 versus our target £25000 (+£3433). The Cranleigh Parish Meeting Room Debt outstanding is now £37338 at the end of March (thank-you to several very substantial donations) and, with pledges made to the end of Feb. 2020, will be at approx. £15000 outstanding at that time. However, with the various Fundraising Activities still to feed through e.g. The Talents Scheme, a possible Concert and other individual efforts, it is a realistic expectation that the debt can be cleared by the end of Feb.2020. The Tracking for the Offertory and The Cranleigh Parish Meeting Room are shown graphically on the Notice Board at the rear of both Churches and they will be updated monthly.

Marriage Encounter weekend

from 24-26 May at Park Place Pastoral Centre, Wickham, near Fareham The weekend is an opportunity for married couples of any age to deepen and enrich their relationship. Interested? Please phone 02380 275401.

SUMMER HOLIDAYS

"You did not choose me but I chose you: and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide; so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, He may give it to you. This I command you to love one another." J 15, 16-17

As a parish community we would like to ensure that families can get a break away during the summer holidays. Please let us know if you would appreciate some assistance in organising/funding a few days away. The forms to be filled will be in the porches of both churches. Alternatively, please contact Magdalena Norris on: magdalena.m.norris@gmail.com

At the same time, we are appealing for your support for this initiative. We ask most importantly for your prayers. Secondly please let us know if you have a holiday place or any accommodation that you would be happy for somebody to use for part of the holidays. Last of all we would appreciate any financial support you can offer. If you would like to donate any funds directly to the Parish bank account, details can be obtained from the Parish Office. Please make sure that you specify the purpose of your donation as a "holiday fund". Contact: magdalena.m.norris@gmail.com

At the end of mass on Sunday and throughout Easter we will sing the Regina Caeli (in English) as follows:

Joy to thee, O Queen of Heaven. Alleluia!
He whom Thou wast meet to bear. Alleluia!

As He promised hath arisen. Alleluia!
Pour for us to God thy prayer. Alleluia!
V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.

R. For the Lord has truly risen, alleluia.
Let us pray. O God, who through the resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, didst vouchsafe to give joy to the world; grant, we beseech Thee, that through His Mother, the Virgin Mary, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday 21 April 2019 Easter Sunday

First reading
Acts 10:34,37-43
'We have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection'

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses – we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead – and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 117(118):1-2,16-17,22-23
R/. This day was made by the Lord: we rejoice and are glad.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
 for his love has no end.
 Let the sons of Israel say:
 'His love has no end.' R

The Lord's right hand has triumphed;
 his right hand raised me up.
 I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds. R

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.
 This is the work of the Lord,
 a marvel in our eyes. R

Second reading Colossians 3:1-4
Look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is
 Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

Gospel Acclamation

1 Cor 5:7-8

Alleluia, alleluia!
 Christ, our passover, has been sacrificed:
 let us celebrate the feast then, in the Lord.
 Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 24:13-35

They recognised him at the breaking of bread
 Two of the disciples of Jesus were on their way to a village called Emmaus, seven miles from Jerusalem, and they were talking together about all that had happened. Now as they talked this over, Jesus himself came up and walked by their side; but something prevented them from recognising him. He said to them, 'What matters are you discussing as you walk along?' They stopped short, their faces downcast.

Then one of them, called Cleopas, answered him, 'You must be the only person staying in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have been happening there these last few days.' 'What things?' he asked. 'All about Jesus of Nazareth' they answered 'who proved he was a great prophet by the things he said and did in the sight of God and of the whole people; and how our chief priests and our leaders handed him over to be sentenced to death, and had him crucified. Our own hope had been that he would be the one to set Israel free. And this is not all: two whole days have gone by since it all happened; and some women from our group have astounded us: they went to the tomb in the early morning, and when they did not find the body, they came back to tell us they had seen a vision of angels who declared he was alive. Some of our friends went to the tomb and found everything exactly as the women had reported, but of him they saw nothing.'

Then he said to them, 'You foolish men! So slow to believe the full message of the prophets! Was it not ordained that the Christ should suffer and so enter into his glory?' Then, starting with Moses and going through all the prophets, he explained to them the passages throughout the scriptures that were about himself.

When they drew near to the village to which they were going, he made as if to go on; but they pressed him to stay with them. 'It is nearly evening' they said 'and the day is almost over.' So he went in to stay with them. Now while he was with them at table, he took the bread and said the blessing; then he broke it and handed it to them. And their eyes were opened and they recognised him; but he had vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, 'Did not our hearts burn within us as he talked to us on the road and explained the scriptures to us?'

They set out that instant and returned to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven assembled together with their companions, who said to them, 'Yes, it is true. The Lord has risen and has appeared to Simon.' Then they told their story of what had happened on the road and how they had recognised him at the breaking of bread.
